Comments

“ Where will we go for family history now? David had a mind like a steel trap... I was always surprised at the details he remembered.... our final chat a few weeks before he died was about all his travels and family... we will miss him.

“ Uncle David always thought of others. He always had a gift or trinket and a story to go with it! When it came to family history, Uncle David could tell you anything you wanted to know. The world will be a little less bright without him.

“ The world will miss this man dearly. He was always such a thoughtful person, and made profound impressions on our family. I have many fond memories as a youngster. "uncle David" as I called him, always had time to educate and share fantastic stories of our family and his travels. Our Love and Prayers!
