“ We offer our love, sorrow and condolences for your loss. Your loss is our loss. Although we did not know her well, we love her and feel a deep sense of regret at lost relationships. She is of our blood and flesh. We heard that she did not wish to have contact with us. We respect that, and recognize that her biological mother had problems and most likely left her feeling abandoned. We love and respect Fred and Kathy for raising such a well loved daughter. We also hope that we might be able to get to know her family, soon. We have the hope, in Christ, that we will all be a part of one large, happy family! May the Lord watch over and bless each of you, we humbly ask.
