“ Dear Nancy, Rich, Mike, Tom, Steve, and families,

Your Dad's legacy will live on in each of you forever.

As a cousin, Tom was a haven to our family. He shared his home, was a hunting partner, had a place to hang out, was a bucket of laughs and jokes, found a job; and was a big “brother”. Dan, Orry , Joyce, Anne, Gloria and I were blessed and honored to have Tom in our family. Thank you for sharing him with us.

Love, prayers and comfort to you all during this difficult time and in the many days ahead,

Rose

“ First, I want to send my condolences, prayers and hugs to Nancy and family. It was such a shock to read of Tom's passing. I worked with Tom beginning in 1967 and became fast friends with he and Nancy with shared meals at their home in S.F. with sons and extended family members. He was always welcoming with a big heart. I'm sorry to have missed the opportunity to share another meal with him and Nancy. Always a story-teller with much laughter involved and Nancy's comments to support those tales will leave me with fond memories of a beloved man who I will miss. May he share those duck and deer stories with others in heaven. RIP my friend.

“ Rich and I cannot express how sad we were to hear of Tom's passing. We will so miss this fun loving, happy go lucky, jovial, wonderful man. He was such a comedian. We will never forget how he could continually fill us all with his jokes. We know Tom didn't have an evil bone in his body. He always had such a positive attitude and so enjoyed bring with friends and family. We are so very sorry that we will not be able to attend the services for Tom due to family issues that have us in southern California, but please know that all our thoughts, prayers and love are with all the family.
With deepest and dearest sympathy,
Rich and Elise Piepmeier

“ Dear Nancy and Family,

I am so sorry to learn of Tom's passing, yes, through this announcement. Tom was one of my nicest and most sweet customer(s) when I worked in the Supermarket. He was a gentle soul and never gave me any trouble. He invited me over a few times to visit you both, but I was always too busy. I always thought, "one day, I'll visit, one day...." Well, I was wrong. Last night, I learned of Tom's passing. There is no more of "One day." I feel so bad, if only I knew... But Nancy, I will visit you and buy you lunch when things settles down. I am so sorry... I learned now, to visit friends and family and not count on any..."One day, when I have more time....." Tomorrow may never arrived.

Love you, and hugs,
Betty Y.

“ Tom hired me at PG&E in 1979, beginning a 40-year relationship as a boss, co-worker, friend, and teammate. He was a mentor and a hero to me, and our many years of playing softball together brought decades of hilarious stories that will continue to be told and re-told many times. Tom was a legend, and my life is far richer for him having played such a large part in it. My condolences to Nancy, Rich, Mike, Tom, Steve and the rest of the family. Tom's spirit will live on in all of us.
