“ I always felt as part of the family. Growing with all the kids. Momma Alice always had a smile and a big grin on her face. She always asked Phil are u hungry? I usually said, What did u make? Which meant sure. Then iwould ask where's Mr. Pete and of course she would say at work . Thanks momma Alice for always treating me like one of your own. Love u always looking to seeing u again in Glory with the FATHER , SON, AND HOLY SPRIT. Give Mr.Pete a kiss and hug for us. SHALOM. LOVE PHIL PALOMO AND VICTORIA.

“ Gram taught me to make tortillas when I was little. She made the dough and we rolled them out and cooked them on her cast iron flat skillet the one with a hole in the long handle that she always left on the stove so it was ready to heat up. They were the best tortillas on earth - hot off the pan with butter. I also remember Gram had the same little song she would say to any babies she held... Ding Da-Da-Ding- as she bounced them on her knee. Gram would show us her tap dancing moves whenever we asked her- she loved tap dancing. She loved flowers and tending to her flower bushes. She loved her kids, grandkids, and great grandkids. I'll miss her.

She was a real strength to her family and was all about servanthood. I have known Albina since 2003, loved her, took care of her to help her son, Peter. Spent many times with her at her home, dinners out, movies, going to the A's games. She really was a easy person to love. I will miss you in many ways.
