“ This news truly breaks my heart and spirit today. I had lost contact with Andres due to our lives taking us in different directions. However he made an impact. He was a very, very, sweet, giving, generous, gentle, loving, soul. Would not trade knowing him for anything. It warms my heart he found love and happiness and had a loving family. I am sure it brought him much joy. May you rest in peace my friend and shine bright with the Angels. Missed in life, missed in your passing. CMS xoxo
