

Ann Jo Lloyd

January 26, 1938 - May 20, 2017

Ann J. Lloyd passed away Saturday at her home in Benicia following a brief illness. She was born in Amityville, New York and had lived in Benicia for the past 40 years. Ann earned her bachelors degree from Northwestern University and was a school teacher for more than 30 years, most of those at Mary Farmar School in Benicia.

Ann was a former member of the Benicia Planning Commission and the Parks & Community Service committee. She enjoyed gardening, spending time with her family and was involved with AA for over 35 years. She loved helping others so she spent time with Studywise, teaching grade school children good study habits and aiding in the transition into middle school.

Ann is survived by John, her husband of 46 years; son Jack (Amanda) Lloyd; her daughter Suzanne (George) Paleologos; her niece Elizabeth Mink and her grandchildren Abigail & Stella.

Memorial services will be held 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, May 31 at Passalacqua Funeral Chapel. Burial will be private at Sacramento Valley National Cemetery.

“ Annie will live forever in my memory and in the memory of the many women she helped, listened to, comforted and very often set straight! Her no nonsense approach, coupled with her love of program and all it represented, live on. She championed all my successes and stood by me through my failures. She was my touchstone. To John, and her children I express my wishes of condolence. I am so sorry for your loss. I pray for her eternal rest, and peace.

“ Mrs. Lloyd (as she was known to my children) was one of my favorite teachers. She was both tough and gentle with the children and created an environment of fun and learning. When we remember Mary Farmer, we always remember Mrs. Lloyd. Our sincere condolences, The Reininger Family (students Molly and Daniel).

“ Our deepest sympathy to the Lloyd family.

We loved Annie and have kept in touch over the years through Christmas cards.

My son Casey Noska had her in second grade. She was the very best!!

We loved watching her throw the first baseball on Opening Day when Little League began each year.

She and her husband John came to Casey's graduation party when he graduated from High School a few years ago.

Annie Lloyd will always have a very special place in our hearts and she will surely be missed.

*Sincerely,
Donna, Ramone,
Brooke, Tyson and Casey Noska*
