“ When I think of Arie Delee Zimmerman Vines, she was was a remarkable girl/woman. I have so many fond memories of our younger years. I met Arie in Junior High and followed her indomitable spirit and joy for life for through our younger years. If she had been born at a later time at a time when women were allowed to rise to their full potential I have no doubt that she would have become a CEO of her own business or what ever she choose. She had great leadership skills! Arie always had fun ideas and organized "the girls" who were her close friends on exciting and exciting escapes. Although, I lost contact with Arie, I never forgot her cheerful, strong personality. Indeed, I have wonderful happy meomories of her. Aries' children were fortunate to have such a positive Mother and role model. She has left you with a vast inheritance of laughter, her sense of humor and love.
