

Barbara D. Davidson

April 21, 1934 - July 14, 2021

Barbara Davidson passed away on Wednesday, surrounded by her loving family. Barbara was a resident of the Alamo and Walnut Creek area from 1966 to the mid-1970s. She then moved to Placerville California with her beloved husband Paul, where they were heavily involved in the “Feed My Sheep” ministries. After the death of Paul, Barbara moved to Benicia to be closer to her children, Mike and Cindy. Her golden years were spent cheering on the San Francisco Giants and Golden State Warriors, studying her Bible, and praising God. Barbara was a homemaker for 43 years and a fabulous cook; she loved being surrounded by her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and friends, and always had a “Nana mint” to share with anyone who stopped by her home. Barbara was impeccably and lovingly cared for in her final months by the wonderful staff of The Carnelian, an assisted living facility in Walnut Creek California.

Barbara was preceded by her sisters Donna Friedrich and Patty Rateau, her husband Paul Davidson, and her son Daniel Patrick Clancy. She is survived by her daughter Cynthia (Mike) Reed and her son Michael (Ilene) Clancy, her friend and former husband Richard Clancy, her beloved grandchildren: Megan (Scott) Shaw, Natalie (JD) Heckaman, Daniel (Sarah) Clancy, Eryn (Greg) Evans and eight great grandchildren.
