“ I am with you still. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow-Diamond sparkles on the snow. I am sunlight on ripened grain, the gentle autumn rain. I am the sweet uplifting rush, of quiet birds in circled flight I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not think of me as gone. I am with you each new dawn. In loving memory, the Taha Family

The reason there are three comments was a technical mistake. Our sincere apologies The Tahas

“Loyd was always our go to guy. If I was alone at night and I heard something outside I would just call Loyd no matter what time it was and he was at my house in a second. (maybe because he has lived next door to us for 37 years)He would have gun in hand and search my house inside and out. He was always there to help you out one way or the other. He would always be outside talking with everyone in the neighborhood. Loyd will be truly missed. We were more than neighbors, we were family. Gone But Never Forgotten. Michelle and Kyle we are always here for you both no matter what. Love you Loyd, I know you are up in heaven making new friends because you never met a stranger.
