

Carolyn K. Gentry

May 1, 1946 - July 15, 2014

Carolyn K. Gentry passed away unexpectedly Tuesday at her home in Benicia. She was born in Vallejo but has called Benicia her home all her life. She graduated from Benicia High School in 1964 and worked as a Pre-School Teacher for more than 15 years, ending her career at Happy Hearts Pre School in Benicia.

Carolyn is survived by her children Melissa Shaughnessy, Curtis Martin & Michelle Terrell; her twin sister Marilyn Keskeys; her mother Gloria Gentry, her grandchildren Maddison Terrell & Fiona Shaughnessy and many loving nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her father James Gentry. She will be remembered for her unconditional love for others and her kind, caring & helpful spirit.

Memorial services will be held 2:00 p.m. Tuesday, July 22nd at Passalacqua Funeral Chapel. Burial will be private.

“ I just wanted to let you know my thoughts and my prayers are with you and your family through this heartbreaking time. Nothing I can say will ease your pain but just wanted you to know I am thinking of you and remembering Carolyn's kindness and love towards all who crossed her path. I have fond memories and feel lucky to have known her all these years. Love & hugs to all.
