

Charles A. Beaver

February 4, 1957 - July 12, 2013

Charles A. Beaver, 56, passed away at his home in San Francisco. He was a Benicia resident for many years before moving to the city 15 years ago. Charles worked several years as a heavy equipment operator and was an avid fan of the Giants & A's and especially the 49ers. He excelled in sports as a youth, loved motorcycles and was an avid drummer. He is survived by his son Jack Jeffrey Beaver; brothers Jonathan Brueland and Scott & Jeffrey Schwartz; sister Jona Lee Hopkins; grandfather Ray Miessek and several aunts and uncle. He was preceded by his mother Laura Lee Brueland, father Jack Beaver and his grandmother Lucille Messick. Memorial services will be held 1:00 p.m. Wednesday at Passalacqua Funeral Chapel followed by burial in Benicia Cemetery.

“ Mr Jacqueline Mr Jacqueline. Are you of the Den of Jackal's? Who wouldn't want a decent meal after eating hospital food even if it was McDonald's? This website is for only family and friends and obviously you aren't one of them.

“ Mr. Beaver, Mr. Beaver that is what I would call him - last year Mr. Beaver went to the hospital - I went to have him up date paper work for The Plaza Apartment. The nurses are there doing what's needed - when done - he asked me to go to McDonald for a cheese burger - the nurses immediately said "NO" - Mr. Beaver looked at me and slammed his hand on the bed - I said sorry Mr. Beaver - Well he can have all the burgers he wants now - R.I.P.

The LORD is my shepard I shall not want. He maketh me lie down in green pastures. He leadth me beside the still waters; he restores my soul. He leadth me in paths of righteousness for his name sake; Yea, though I walk through the valley of death I will fear no evil; for thou art with me, Thy rod and thy staff comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies; thou annointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. In Jesus' holy and mighty name. Amen.
