“ I have a lot of great memories. Having a taco lunch with you and Judy when you first got married, Looking at your first home with the two of you, playing softball and basketball, being a co-worker and sharing with you as our families grew up. I've lost a friend but still have those memories. Janet and I can't say enough about the awesome caregiver "Judy" who has been your partner in life. I'm glad your at peace now and may god look over your family. Your friend Dave Rohrer

“ My dear brother Mike, you will never be forgotten. You were the care giver for our parents and I think one of the toughest things for you in the last eight years was that you had to depend to be cared for by Judy and your family. They did a GREAT job for you and I am so happy for that. I will miss you forever. I LOVE YOU!
