

Christina Lea Everhart

October 29, 1973 - November 27, 2025

Christina Lea Everhart, 52, passed away unexpectedly on November 27, 2025, at her home in Vallejo, California. Born on October 29, 1973, in San Francisco, she spent her life raising her daughter, making meaningful friendships, and building a long and dedicated career in banking.

Christina worked as a bank manager for more than 20 years, many of those years with Wells Fargo in Vallejo, and most recently with Chase in Vallejo. She was known for her bright and bubbly personality, professionalism, and the genuine care she showed to both colleagues and customers.

Outside of work, Christina found joy in the great outdoors. She loved camping, hiking, and paddle boarding, and she took every opportunity to spend time in nature. She was happiest surrounded by friends and family, and she had a lasting love for the music of Michael Jackson.

Christina is survived by her daughter, Kelsey, and Kelsey's husband, Cole Yarbrough; her sisters, Barbara Urbani, Denise Snell and Linda Benson; her brother, C.J. Urbani; her nephew, Joseph Everhart, and his wife, Shawna; and her beloved dogs, Roxy and Churro.
