

Christine P. Block

May 1, 1960 - August 29, 2015

Christine P. Block passed away Saturday in a local hospital following a courageous yearlong battle with Leukemia. She was born in Linwood, CA, lived in Dublin for almost 20 years but has called Benicia her home since 2009. She was a Tax accountant for more than 30 years and had her own accounting business for the last 5 years.

Christine was a very active member of St. Dominic's Church and enjoyed cooking, reading, traveling, making Christmas cookies and rooting for the San Francisco Giants. Her favorite place to be was the beach, where she loved to go with her husband Joe. She met Joe at age 19 and they had 35 wonderful years of marriage together. Her greatest joy was being a wonderful and loving wife, mother, mimi and a great friend to anyone who needed her. She will always be remembered as a beautiful person inside and out who always put others before herself. She will be greatly missed by all who have ever known her.

Christine is survived by her husband Joseph; her daughter Ashley; her son Matthew; her mother Sharon; her grandson Greyson and her dog Summer and cat Maui.

A Memorial Mass will be held 9:30 a.m. Saturday, September 12th at St. Dominic's Church. Burial will be private. Family prefers donation in her name be made to the leukemia & lymphoma society at www.lls.org.

“ Although Chris has passed, she will always be present. She touched my heart, and I'm so glad our ships did not pass in the night. Chris's love for her family and for her friends, and her faith transcends all that is mortal, and it's this love and faith that I trust will help the broken hearts heal. My thoughts are with you all.
