

Cindy Lytle

May 4, 1949 - February 10, 2023

Cindy Lytle, longtime resident of Benicia passed away peacefully Friday, February 10th. She was born in Coronado, California and has called Benicia her home since 1973. Cindy received her bachelor's degree from Long Beach State and later her master's degree from Hayward State.

Cindy taught at Mills Elementary School for several years in the early 1970's and later as a substitute teacher with the Benicia Unified School District in the late 1990's. She also was co-owner of Sam's Harbor Restaurant during the late 1970's and worked in the wine industry into the 1980's. Most people would remember her as the owner of Benicia Travel Agency from the mid 1980's until 2001.

Cindy was a member of several local organizations including the Benicia Rotary Club, Sutter Solano Bioethics Committee, Solano County Grand Jury and was a volunteer at the Benicia Public Library.

Cindy was preceded in death by her parents Morton & Rita Lytle and her brother Richard Lytle. She is survived by her half-sister Kathi Nye and sister-in-law Tame Lytle. She will be greatly missed by her close friends Gail Hengst, Cathy Christo, Tracey Gieffels, Paula French, and Whitney Sutterley.

At her request, no services will be held. We would like to give thanks to all the staff at The Lodge at Glen Cove for the loving care and support given to both Cindy and her close friends. Donations in her memory may be made to the Parkinson's Disease Foundation or a charity of your choice.
