“ JoAnn, Marci, Mark, Brian... I was just thinking of you all and found this on the web. I'm very sorry to hear that Cleo passed away and will always remember his laugh and the way he loved to joke and have fun. A straight forward 'what you see is what you get' man without an ounce of pretension or phoniness to him. I'm sorry to see he's gone.

My thoughts are with you all.

“ Dear JoAnn: My deepest sympathy to you and yours. Cleo was a good friend, a load of fun, did his life "his way," a hard worker, and a Benician! Lifetime memory is the Culver's Hardware basketball team in the City League...Cleo, our center, Don Olson, George Drolette, Gene Curry , Jim Higginbotham, Les Driver, me....we won a lot of games, not all...but no team ever had a better, fun time! You earned the rest, Cleo, you are with many family and friends. God Bless.

“ Grandpa was one of the hardest workers I've ever known. An often opinionated man with a wicked sense of humor.
