

Cynthia Jean DuBois Stewart

June 1, 1926 - March 17, 2020

Cynthia Jean DuBois Stewart passed away peacefully on March 17, 2020.

To commemorate her passing, the family has decided to post her obituary on the one year anniversary.

Cynthia was born in Grosse Pointe, Michigan to Edward and Elsie DuBois, and moved to the Bay area as a teenager, graduating from Lowell High School in San Francisco. She and husband, Aubrey Stewart, Jr. lived briefly in Chicago and then landed in Corning, Iowa. When Cynthia was in her late 40's, she moved to Ames, Iowa to attend Iowa State University, graduating with a degree in Speech, English and Journalism in 1979. She then returned to the Bay Area and lived in Contra Costa County for the past 40 years.

She worked for many years in San Francisco as a legal secretary. Cynthia was an usher at Davies Hall and a longtime member of the Sierra Club. She was also a member of Christ the King Church, and deeply devoted to her faith.

Cynthia loved travel, nature and hiking, especially in Yosemite. She was very independent, curious and adventurous and loved meeting people. Cynthia was a beautiful, kind and gentle soul who lived life to its fullest with grace and love.

Cynthia is survived by her children Katherine Ann Myers, Christopher Thomas Stewart, Scott Charles Stewart, and Timothy William Stewart; grandchildren Andrew Myers, Marissa King, and Sean Stewart; great grandchildren Miah, Rexton and Annika; sister, Janet Rodat and many nieces and nephews.

Memorial services are still pending. Burial will be at St. Johns Cemetery, San Mateo.

The family prefers donations to:

Vitas Healthcare (Hospice) - East Bay
<https://vitascommunityconnection.org/>

Carnelian Assisted Living
2380 Warren Rd, Walnut Creek, CA 94595
925-938-0200

Sierra Club
<https://www.sierraclub.org/>

Tribute Wall

“ Cynthia Jean DuBois Stewart

---

November 29, 2022 at 08:20 PM