

Cynthia R. Tarantino

October 15, 1961 - August 18, 2024

Cynthia R. Tarantino passed away Sunday, August 18th. She was born in San Francisco, growing up in Pacifica (12 plus years), until moving to Vallejo (48 years) and later Fairfield (3.5 years). She worked as a Benefits Consultant for more than 42 years with companies (Delta Dental, Blue Cross Dental, Blue Cross Medical, Buck Consultants, Mellon Bank, Aon Risk Management, Alliant Insurance Services, and finishing with One Digital).

Cynthia was a graduate of Hogan High School, class of 1979; she enjoyed Exercising, Rollerblading, Fishing, spending time in her Garden (and driving her green John Deere Tractor) and Rock Hunting for Agates. She enjoyed going to Giants games, 49ers games, the pumpkin festival at Half Moon Bay finding the nearest womens boutique while traveling and she fully embraced being a Tarantino.

Cynthia is survived by her husband Tony for the past 32 years; her son's Gaetano Charles Tarantino (Megan) (grandson Lorenzo Salvatore Tarantino) and Cody James Tarantino (Johana); her brother Mike (Boni) Looby; her sister Annette Marie Nau; her in-laws Gayton and Carole Tarantino; sister-in-laws Rose (Don Coles) Tarantino; Joanne (John) McConlogue; Gaetana Tarantino (Danielle Hernandez) and her dog Ludovico "Louie" Tarantino

“ Over the years, Cindy brought not only a strong work ethic and dedication but also a warmth and kindness that touched everyone she worked with. Cindy's passion for her work and the people around her was evident in every project, conversation and challenge she faced.

Our thoughts and deepest sympathies go out to her family and loved ones.

Rest in peace, Cindy. You will be greatly missed.

“ Blessed with fond memories of my sister Cindy and having such good times together growing up in San Francisco. Many of them were spent on Sunday drives exploring all around our favorite city "wherever it would lead" and enjoying this time together in the city we all loved. To sister Cindy, you will never be forgotten and will always be remembered in my heart. With love, Sister Annette
