

Dorothy A. Szabo

May 6, 1946 - July 29, 2024

Dorothy A. Szabo passed away peacefully Monday morning. She was born in Brooklyn, New York and has lived throughout the United States before finally settling in Benicia 36 years ago in 1988.

She was a graduate of St. John's University in New York. After graduating with her Bachelor's Degree in Accounting, she was one of the first female accountants at Price Waterhouse. She attended Catholic schools throughout her life and later taught religious education and coached youth soccer for her three sons. Dorothy rode equestrian during her childhood and teen years, competing in Madison Square Garden. She was a huge fan of the Kentucky Derby and traveled to the derby, where she saw two horses, Seattle Slew and Affirmed, win the Triple Crown. Dorothy also owned and operated an administrative services business for many years in Benicia. Dorothy traveled to Ireland in her college years and fell in love with Irish Wolfhounds. She was able to own several later in life. Dorothy and her husband, Peter had many travel adventures during their marriage.

Dorothy is survived by her husband, Peter and their children, Peter and his wife, Beth, David and his wife, Cathy, and John Szabo; their grandchildren, Kayla and her husband Manuel Lopez, and Howard & Julia Szabo.

When parting from family or friends, Dorothy would always say the phrase, “Jesus go with you.” Please hold these words in your heart when you remember Dorothy.

Services will be private at St. Dominic’s Church. Burial will be in Sacramento Valley National Cemetery, Dixon.
