

Dwight L. Graham

December 5, 1954 - September 23, 2025

Dwight L. Graham, a lifelong resident of Vallejo, passed away on September 23, 2025, at the age of 70.

Born on December 5, 1954, in Vallejo, Dwight grew up in the community he loved. He attended Hogan High School, graduating with the Class of 1973, and went on to study at Solano College and Sacramento State, where he also played basketball.

For most of his career, Dwight worked as a bartender, a profession that suited his warm and friendly personality. Over the years, he worked at several establishments, including Steak and Ale in Sacramento and Jenica's in Vallejo, where he made many lasting friendships.

Dwight is survived by his brothers, Larry Graham and Charles (Arlene) Graham; his niece, Kerri (Britt) Nyman; his nephew, Greg Graham (Lyll Browning); and his great-nephews, Carson and Teagan Nyman, and great-nieces, Reese and Paisley Nyman.

In keeping with Dwight's wishes, no services will be held.

Tribute Wall

DM

“ Dear Rocky and Larry,

I'm so sorry for your loss in Dwight's passing. He had the warmest personality and always made you feel comfortable, no matter what the situation was. He was always smiling and found more positivity than negativity in everything he was involved in.

I hope great memories fill the hole in your hearts as time goes on.

Take care and warm regards,

David Medeiros and Family

David Medeiros - September 29, 2025 at 10:48 PM

RR

“ Rest in Peace, Big Doo - you were truly one of the good guys. So many great memories. Keep 'em laughing for eternity, my friend...

Roger Roberts - September 27, 2025 at 02:26 PM

“ Dwight, and I were very close friends when we were little guys, 3rd through 6th grade. As we grew, separate interests parted our ways. Nonetheless, I was at the Graham's house so often back then it truly felt like I was the 4th Graham son. Rest in peace, Dwight.

Mike Galmukoff - September 25, 2025 at 03:10 PM

GT

“ The grahams lived up the street from us for all of my childhood. I remember Dwight just being the sweetest & I can see his smile still.
Rest easy
Gloria (Stall) Thomas

gloria thomas - September 25, 2025 at 12:34 PM