“ I will so miss my Deacon Ed. He meant so much to my family and I. He performed our marriages, baptized our children, and buried our family members. On March 23, I ran into him at Safeway. I was so deep in thought because my mother was dying that I nearly walked right past him. He asked me her name so he could pray for her and I told him we would be needing him soon to assist us with her Rosary. I think it was God's will that I saw Deacon Ed there the very same day she passed. We did call on him and he did a beautiful tribute to her. My family and I feel so blessed to have had him in our lives. I hope it bring the family comfort to know how much he touched our lives.

I too believe he was an inspiration to all of us. As one of several Baptism coordinators at St. Dominic's Church, I had the honor of serving with Deacon Ed as he officiated many Baptisms throughout the years, most recently a few weeks ago. He was a kind, gentle, loving man who loved his family, friends, and his church community. I will miss his warm and bright smile. May he rest in peace. Terri Maccarone, Parishioner
