

Enrique A. Lopez Jr.

October 10, 1986 - July 3, 2021

Enrique A. Lopez Jr., 34, of Vallejo passed away suddenly Saturday as a result of an automobile accident. He was born in San Francisco and had lived in Vallejo the past 9 years. Enrique worked in insurance sales for the last 11 years and most recently worked for AAA Insurance in Sonoma and Marin counties.

Enrique was the adored uncle to his nephews and had many nicknames including Baby, Quito, "E" and Tio Quique. A young kid at heart, Enrique was an avid collector of Air Jordan's, video game systems, Pokemon cards, Transformers and survival tools. He was an intelligent, loving and dependable friend and family member, full of charisma and was always able to bring people together through laughter and understanding. As a native of San Francisco, the city he loved so much, he was a huge fan of both the Giants and 49ers.

He is survived by his parents Enrique & Marta; his sister Karina (Daniel) Bivian and lots of aunts, uncles, cousins and his cherished ferocious polar bear, Chester Pup.
