

Esther L. Mars

September 23, 1947 - June 23, 2024

Esther L. Mars passed away peacefully at her home in Fairfield Sunday morning. She was born in Madera and lived in Vallejo the majority of her life except for 25 years beginning in 1995 when she moved to Bremerton, Washington. Esther worked over 30 years for Pacific Bell and AT&T. She worked for Interdata for 10 years in Washington before she retired.

Esther loved to cook, crochet and go on shopping trips to boutique shops all over California and Washington with her girls. She spent much of her time camping, fishing and boating when she lived in Washington. She enjoyed watching her husband Nelson rebuild classic cars in his garage and win awards at local car shows. Most of all she loved spending time with her family. She was also an avid fan of the Seattle Seahawks and Seattle Mariners.

Esther is survived by her daughter Dana (Doug) Young, sisters Carmen Santos of Chicago, IL and Virginia Fereday of Vallejo, CA; brother Richard Camacho of Fairlawn, VA; grandchildren Taylor (Kris) Anderson and Bailey Young, and her great grandson Kayden Anderson; 5 nieces and nephews, and 8 great nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband William Nelson Mars and her brother Joseph Camacho Jr.

Services will be private.

“ Esther was my big sister. I have many cherished memories. She was always kidding around being silly and laughing. She is gone too soon. I miss her so much. Love you Sis ❤️🙏

“ I don't remember Ester but what she didn't have the sweetest smile on her face. She was fun and the "Hutton twins" loved her. (Hogan High days.)
