

Hisako Connie Neeman

January 6, 1928 - September 12, 2017

Hisako C. Neeman passed away peacefully Tuesday at her home in Benicia. She was born in Tokyo, Japan and came to America in 1952 and Benicia in 1998. She was an accomplished seamstress and loved gardening and cooking. She was part of a military family and spent time with her family in Europe when abroad and for many years she called Lawton, Oklahoma her home. Hisako was the original owner of the Oriental Food Store and the Takara Restaurant in Lawton, OK from 1959-1967.

Hisako is survived by her daughter Joyce (Dave) Ramus; son Lee (Jan) Neeman; grandchildren Tamila Smith, Laura (Norman) Thomas, Nicole (Chris) Dority, Justin (Trista) Kerns, Debbi Torres and Tracy (Johnny) Sanchez; 10 great grandchildren and a great great granddaughter Nevaeh Chaplin. She was preceded in death by her husband Marlan, daughter Jean Machi, grandson Robert McCabe, great granddaughter Elizabeth Chaplin and her much loved dog, Hana.

Memorial services will be held 11:00 a.m. Friday, October 20th at Passalacqua Funeral Chapel, 901 West Second Street, Benicia. Burial will be private with her late husband at Sacramento Valley National Cemetery, Dixon, CA. Family prefers donations to the Sutter Solano Cancer Center.
