

Jacqueline L. "Jackie" Schwiebert

March 12, 1951 - November 21, 2014

Jacqueline L. "Jackie" Schwiebert passed away unexpectedly Friday in a local hospital. She was born in Hayward and has lived in Benicia since 1990. She worked as a Medical Records Coder at Kaiser Hospital for over 21 years.

Jackie loved knitting, sewing, all types of crafting and animals of all kinds, including the neighborhood raccoons. She was an accomplished photographer and had photos published in Black & White Magazine. The website www.blackcatsimaging.com includes much of her work.

Jackie is survived by Robert, her husband for more than 39 years; daughter Aimee Spaulding; her father Hubert Williams, her sister Esther Pryor and her cat Swiffer. She was "Auwah" to her beloved grandchildren Josh & Trevor Pratt and Emma Spaulding. Jackie was preceded in death by her mother Faith Williams.

Following cremation, her ashes will be scattered off the California Coast. Family prefers donations to Lindsay Wildlife Museum (<http://wildlife-museum.org>) or the Solano County Friends of Animals in Benicia (707-552-3323).

“ I worked with Jacque for years. We shared a love for photography and kitties. I was amazed by her gift of crafts.... What that woman could do with leftover grocery bags! Jacque is in my thoughts. Jacque's family, may you be comforted by your memories.
