James E. "Jim" Martin Sr., 66, passed away suddenly Thursday at Kaiser Hospital in Vallejo. Jim was born to Tony and Audrey Martin in Vallejo on Sept. 17, 1946 and was a lifelong resident of Benicia. He was a 1964 graduate of Benicia High School where he excelled in football and baseball. He served our country in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War. He was proud to have worked along side his father as a butcher at the Park-n-Shop in Benicia for several years and was also a butcher at the Travis AFB Commissary until he retired in 2008.
