“ Someone once said, “I have learned that grief is another name for love” – effectively making grief the most poignant experience people endure. We will grieve Jim’s passing for a long time, but we’re eternally grateful for having experienced a profound connection with this remarkable human being.

We will miss all the fun get-togethers in Benicia – the BBQs, wine-tastings, tequila-tastings, his hospitality, etc. RIP Jim and may God sustain Kandiss and everyone who love you.

“ Jim simply made life better for anyone lucky to have known him and especially as a friend. So many laughs, so many warm wonderful memories he created. Some people just make the sun and stars brighter, the sky bluer, and the grass and flowers more vibrant - and that was Jim. Godspeed Jim and I truly hope to see you in the next life. I will greatly miss you. -Lance-
