

Jim Dunlop

July 5, 1936 - February 6, 2019

Jim Dunlop, founder of Dunlop Manufacturing and enormously influential innovator of picks, capos, and other guitar accessories, has passed away. He was 82 years old.

It would be difficult to find a guitar player who hasn't been affected by Jim's thoughtful innovations. Ever attentive to their needs, Jim will live on in the many products that he created to provide people with a better playing experience.

Jim was widowed by Bernice, in 2001 and is survived by Linda, wife of 7 years; daughter Jasmin Powell, married to Glenn; son Jimmy Dunlop, married to Elizabeth; and grandchildren Alyssa Powell, Krista Powell, and Max Dunlop.

Services will be held at Green Valley Country Club on Tuesday, February 19th from 2-4pm. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to MusiCares (<https://www.grammy.com/musicares/donations>) in Jim's name.

“ Jim was a friend of my Dad Alec (Alex) Maguire. Both men from Glasgow, both lived in Benicia.

Today I was jarred a memory of Jim and looked him up online.

So very sorry to hear of his passing. Know that my Dad and Jim are having a great party and a good laugh. My Dad passed May 9th, 2020.
