“ Jim was such a bright and shining light. What a joyous person! Going over and beyond to make people laugh. He helped mom and I hold open Houses and never once would let mom sit alone while hosting. He is missed already but will never be forgotten.

“ Jim always had a smile to share. We would visit at the Association of Realtors meetings and I would update him as to what was going on in the neighborhood, as I had purchased the Torpey family home on Viewmont.
He was a character and he will be missed!

“ Jim, Paul and I were best of friends thru our school years. Even though i moved to Texas to go to college, Jim and i still talked. I was going to come out this summer and we were going to get together, and I just wished him Happy Brithday. Lot of memories we had going to miss him
