“ My brother-in-law, Jon, was a wonderful man and a very special part of our family. When Jon and Barb would come to Florida, Jon always spent quality time with our Mom, who really enjoyed those times . . . even as she became ill and frail. Jon and I shared a love of college football and he nicely cheered for my team every year. We had some great telephone conversations about life, sports, and family. My best memories of Jon were experiencing him as a husband to my sister and godparent to twins, Leo and Nico Sanchez; he was a very loving husband and godfather. I know that Jon is with God, but we will miss him. What a good guy!

“ I would like to comment on Jon Wiser's life. Our daughter, Julie, is married to Jon's son Bill. At Jon's Memorial, in all the remarks regarding how he lived out his life, the overarching themes were faithfulness and love for others. Though Jon has passed from us we are so grateful to see those same qualities operating in his son's life. We witness Bill exhibiting deep faithfulness as he lovingly cares for his wife and 2 young sons—while at the same time reaching out with compassion to his fellow man. We appreciate Jon for so effectively modeling these traits; and Bill for having the wisdom and courage to follow his father's example---and that in a society in which these virtues are coming into short supply. To God be the glory!!!!
