Joseph C. Singleton

August 5, 1923 - January 2, 2014

Joseph C. Singleton, 90, passed away at his home in Winters following a short illness. He was born in Sacramento and lived in Davis for about 15 years before moving to Winters in 1976. He worked as a Electrical Inspector at UC Davis for over 33 years before retiring in 1985.

Joe was a veteran of World War II from 1944-1946 as a member of the US Army Air Corp. He was a pilot of a C-47 carrying paratroopers and cargo during the Battle of the Bulge.

Joe was an avid golfer. He always enjoyed a good round of golf and a good glass of wine.

Joe is survived by his sons Pat (Joanne) & Jeff Singleton, sister Pat Cirac and grandson Andrew Singleton. He was preceded in death by his wife Jean in 2002.

Graveside services will be private at the Odd Fellows Cemetery in Sacramento. Arrangements are under the direction of Passalacqua Funeral Chapel, Benicia. Family prefers donations be made to the Winters Library.

“ I was very sorry to hear the passing of my friend Joe Singleton. I had the pleasure golf with Joe and Hodge and the late Bud we all retired from UCD. We started by meeting for breakfast than going golfing. The past few years Joe has not been able to play golf I will miss him dearly. Joe truly enjoyed the game and we all enjoyed his company.
