

Judith Elaine Ladd Bray

September 18, 1958 - June 20, 2012

Judith, loving wife, daughter and friend passed away Wednesday afternoon at her home with her husband, parents and friends by her side following a brief illness. She was born in Chattanooga, Tennessee in 1958 and lived in the south until moving to the Bay Area in the 1980s. Judith began her working career in a dime store at twelve years old in her home town and went on to become a nuclear medicine technician and ultimately a court reporter in the Bay Area.

Judith's loves in life included foremost Oliver, rescuing animals and giving them a loving home, gardening, redecorating every home she lived in, and cooking wonderful dinners for all her friends and family. Her sense of humor and love of life drew friends to her and endeared her to all.

She will be missed and remembered with great love by her husband Oliver; her parents Ken & Jean Ladd; sister Leta and her husband, George Petroff; niece Casey, nephew Jake, her many friends and her beloved Cocker Spaniel, Gridley.

Memorial services will be private. Family prefers donations to the Marin Humane Society, Animal Rescue Foundation (ARF) or Hospice of the East Bay.

“ I believe I bought Judith's home in the Fairhills area San Rafael. She was lovely and open to working with me as an individual. I have thought of her often as I enjoy my home and will not forget her happy smile and her dog Oreo and cat Butter. She sold me a table and china cabinet along with the house. I am happy to part with them for a very modest price if a family member would like them. I just learned of her death today. My sympathy to all her family and friends
