Born on July 17, 1947, in Vallejo, California, Judy built a life centered on family, dedication, and simple joys. She spent much of her career in public service, working as a dispatcher for the California Highway Patrol before her retirement. Her work reflected her steady nature, quick thinking, and commitment to helping others.

Outside of her career, Judy found happiness in the comfort of home and the company of loved ones. She enjoyed watching television, especially her favorite programs, Law & Order, 48 Hours, and Dateline. She was also a devoted fan of the Miami Dolphins and rarely missed a game. Above all, Judy cherished time with her family—especially her grandchildren, who brought her immense pride and joy.

She is survived by her daughters, Ashley Lamb and her husband David, and Jamie Allen; her sons, Michael Young, Darren Young and his wife Lynnette, Stephen Allen and his wife Lisa Ann; her brother, Claude Felts; and her beloved dog, Gus.
