

Lee Ann Darwood

November 9, 1960 - February 18, 2016

Lee Ann Darwood passed away suddenly Thursday at her home in Benicia. She was born in Detroit, Michigan and has called Benicia her home since 2007. Lee worked in retail sales for more than 30 years, most of those years at Gumps, Heritage House or Ralph Lauren stores.

Lee was a former model and lover of fashion, art & antiques. She was a fan of old movies, especially silent films and was a fan of both NASCAR and the San Jose Sharks.

Lee is survived by her sons Beau W. Darwood and George V. Darwood; her mother Mary Digon; sisters Kathy Capoccia & Carolyn Weingarten; and her former husband Richard Darwood.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held 10:00 Saturday at St. Dominic's Church. Burial will be private. Visitation will be Friday from 4-8 p.m. at Passalacqua Funeral Chapel. In lieu of flowers the family will accept donations.

“ So sorry for the passing of Lee Ann. I knew her at LHS in Madison Heights as well as at NMU. I'll always remember her eyes, smiling and kind. I just watched her video - what an amazing life she led, all of her adventures around the world as well as having 2 boys to love. While she may have been taken so soon she lived an amazing life. Deepest condolences to her family.
