

Lloyd B. Duncan

April 10, 1937 - January 28, 2014

It's with great sadness that the family of Lloyd B. Duncan announces he peacefully passed away on January 28, 2014.

Lloyd was born in Clayton, California on April 10, 1937 and lived there until about ten years ago. He was one of four children born to Bernard and Helen Duncan.

Lloyd was a Ranch Manager in Clayton, CA for many years and an Operating Engineer for 30 years for Kaiser Sand & Gravel. He retired in 1998. In retirement he enjoyed watching the horse races with his friends and became an Early American History buff and a talented wood carver. He always enjoyed and looked forward to driving his red truck to go to the shooting range with his sons and grandson.

Lloyd is survived by Alfreida Ramos Duncan, his wife of 55 years; his three sons, Joseph, Michael and Charles Duncan their wives Patricia, Pamela & Kristina; three grandchildren, Robert, Garrett and Sarah Duncan; his sister Barbara Sickenberger and brother Glen Duncan. He was preceded in death by his oldest brother Earl Duncan.

Services will be private. Donations may be made to the Clayton Historical Society Memorial Fund or to the American Lung Association. The Duncan

Family wishes to thank Bruns House in Hospice of the East Bay for their care and support.

Tribute Wall

“ Lloyd B. Duncan

November 29, 2022 at 08:20 PM

“ Alfreida and family, We were so sorry to hear of Lloyd's passing. We will pray for the repose of his soul as well as for all of you in this difficult time. Marilyn & Don Larkin

Marilyn Larkin - February 07, 2014 at 07:05 PM