“ When Jeanie was a teenager she had stuffed animals all over her bed. I was amazed and wondered if she slept under them. She was ten years older than me and I basked in her beauty whenever I was around her. Which was a lot. When she got a job she always dressed impeccably; I coveted her cashmere sweaters. With loving memories, Terry Earnheart

“ Your Mother and sister lives on in you. She nurtured you when you were small and taught you as you grew. Her values, lessons, hopes, and dreams became a part of you. Though she is gone, her love for you remains, and always will... your mother and sister lives within your heart- her spirit guides you still. Hoping the legacy of love Lois Jean left you will be a source of strength and comfort for all of you now. She was such a delight to know and be around. We will all miss her greatly. I will wear red on Monday to honor her. Will deepest sympathy,
