“ Dear Aunt Louise, rest in peace with dearest Norbie. Always my guardian angels. 53 years ago my mother Mary showed up on dear aunt Louise's doorstep in California from Ohio at 25, no place to go and me in the womb. She took us in. Next thing we know Norbie was driving us to the delivery room and then to their home. She made sure we had a chance. then Mary and I were forever part of the Tegenkamp clan. Aunt Louise will be always loved and ever present in my heart. She is part of my story and in my heart forever.
