

Marcelo Veloria Mislant

June 5, 1945 - May 25, 2023

Marcelo Veloria Mislant, of Benicia, CA passed away peacefully on Thursday, May 25, 2023 at age 77. Marcelo was born on June 5, 1945 in Labrador, Pangasinan, Philippines, to the late Theodoro & Lurgia Mislant.

In 1970, Marcelo graduated as Mechanical Engineer at Mapua University, the premier engineering and technological school of the Philippines. He was an instructor at Feati University, and worked as an engineer at NAWASA, Water Works, both in Manila. He worked at several Petro Refineries like Kuwait, Oil Company for more than 25 years.

Marcelo was a believer in "First Love Never Dies". In 2001, he came to the United States and married his first love, Norma Pagaspas Agan, and has lived in Benicia since. Marcelo was a homebody, loved the simple life and loved to listen to music, watch TV with his favorites being the news and dramas, and to eat to his heart's content. He used to be a Eucharist Minister with his wife at St. Dominic Church, Benicia. He loved and had so much faith in the Lord, he prayed the rosary each day. One of his favorite trips was to Jerusalem, where he and his wife joined the tour to Israel organized by St. Dominic Church.

Marcelo was a beloved, ideal, and caring husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. He is survived by his daughters, Marjorie (Canada), Marianne (Manila), Vanessa (Switzerland), and Grace (Canada). His Step-children with Norma; Andrew Agan (Dixon, CA), Abigail Agan Adel (Vacaville, CA) and Ricca Cecilia Castanon (Tracy, CA). He has a total of six grandchildren. He will be missed, may he rest in peace with the Lord.

“ A loving father tender and kind, what a beautiful memory you have left behind.

Few things about my dad

1. I've never met a man who perfectly suits the definition of "frugal". He will not want anything beyond his means and he's very much content to what he has.

I can still vividly remember those times we go to a restaurant and will ask how much? you can never be subtle in saying "how much!" As you sounded in disbelief And all of us will look at you and say sshh.

Over the years I m not sure if you can tell we have never shown you the receipt or we cut the price and tell you so you won't have that violent reaction.

2. Might sound ironic you had this phase in your life when you were obsessed with branded shoes. You've always wanted Clark's. Could be due to comfort?.i can always recall how your face lit 's up when you visit the shoe store.

3. I remember those years when you came home from Saudi and would constantly play songs from abba. You try to sing their songs at a low tone , your dance isn't even a dance, instead you do boxing stances.

4. Very low maintenance, can survive by just eating puto, pandesal, fish & vegetables. Gloats the thought of cheese.

5. Has deep devotion to lady manaoag . Any opportunity he will bring us over there to pray.

6. HE will never get tired listening to our stories, he will still laugh as if it was his first time to hear.

7. My dad had an opportunity to enroll me to a British school in Kuwait. We were being screened to see if I can follow their curriculum. As we were told it would be impossible.

My dad spoke highly of me to my school principal. Although on the side I was telling him I don't know the subject at all. His exact words : my daughter can do it.

I just rolled my eyes in fear.

He patiently taught me physics and math algebra. In the end, his hard work paid off. I graduated and my principal congratulated him .

8. he used to tell us Bible stories talks about them with passion and we attentively listened. My favorite story is about book of Joseph.

There's so much more to say, I'm just happy I was able to tell you in person, your mission accomplished. To surrender to the lord as we now can stand in our own feet.

I will be forever be grateful for all the things you've done to me. I will carry on your footsteps and make sure your legacy lives forever.

Grit resilience and believing when you are not seeing. Few lessons that were not told but modeled to your children.

I will miss you. In God's time we will see each other.

“ Heavenly Father, The Son and The Holy Spirit, I trust Marcelo into your care Lord, our God, the fullness of eternity with you.

I trust myself into your care, please pour new light, new hope, new courage, understanding, consolation, comfort, renew and sustain my strength to carry on. Help me and show me Lord, Your loving kindness and mercy at this difficult time. I submit to You Lord, Your divine will and love.

*The Serenity Prayer
God grant me the serenity
To accept the things, I cannot change;
Courage to change the things I can;
And wisdom to know the difference.*
