

Margaret Povey Ware

March 23, 1927 - May 2, 2015

Margaret Povey Ware, 88 years old, passed away peacefully May 2, 2015 after a full life. Born in Los Angeles California and raised in Twin Falls, Idaho, she returned to Los Angeles to complete her education and graduate from the Hollywood Presbyterian Nursing School as a registered nurse in 1949. She worked in several San Francisco Bay Area hospitals and met her husband Ernest Ware while he was her patient. Margaret was a loving wife and mother, a “one of a kind” woman with a heart of gold. As a long-time Benicia, California resident, she enjoyed many dear, long-time friendships and worked as an obstetrics nurse at Sutter Vallejo General Hospital until her retirement. Margaret had a life filled with loving family and dear friends. She kept herself occupied with projects that involved gardening, sewing, cooking, and crafts. Miniatures and doll houses were her passion, caring for people was her nature. Preceded in death were her husband of 40 years, Ernest Ware, Jr. and her son-in-law Thomas Ryll. She is survived by her brother of Hagerman, Idaho, Bud Povey; her daughter and son Kathleen Ryll and Ernest Ware III; daughter-in-law, Carolyn Ware; and three grandchildren, Stephanie Ryll, and John and Valerie Ware. A private memorial service is planned for a future date. She will be laid to rest with her husband at the Golden Gate National Veterans Cemetery in San Bruno, California.

Tribute Wall

“ Margaret Povey Ware

November 29, 2022 at 08:20 PM

“ Family of Margaret. My deepest sympathy to you in the loss of your mother, grandmother and extended family. Many fond and fun memories of her when she was my land lady on West F. St., many years ago. May she rest in peace.

Carol King - June 22, 2015 at 10:42 PM