

Margie B. Richmond

August 1, 1924 - July 29, 2014

Margie B. Richmond passed away suddenly Tuesday in Napa, just three days short of what would have been her 90th birthday. She was born in Ashland, Oregon and has lived in Benicia since 1968. Margie was a member of the First Baptist Church of Benicia for 40+ years where she served in many capacities, but she especially enjoyed her role as a Sunday School teacher. Margie worked as a self-employed Real Estate Broker and Accountant for over 50 years. She was also a founder of Christian Community Development, a group dedicated to supplying housing and food to underprivileged families.

Margie is survived by her son Donald and wife Michelle Richmond II; daughters Margo Annette and husband Michael McCarty and Donna Paulette and husband Ward Cockerton; grandchildren Diane Paulette Richmond, Sean Patrick McCarty, Giselle Rae Richmond & Andrew Cian Richmond. She was preceded in death by her daughter Rebekah F. "Becky" Nowak, grandson Bryan Paul Richmond and her husband Donald Paul Richmond.

A Celebration of Life Memorial Service will be held August 16th , 11:00 AM at Calvary Baptist Church in Concord ,CA (2140 Olivera Ct.) In lieu of flowers, the family prefers donations to either First Baptist Church, 1055 Southampton Road, Benicia 94510 or Calvary Baptist Church, 2140 Olivera Ct., Concord, CA 94520.
