“ You have such a beautiful family. We remember how excited May was in church on her first Mother’s Day. We enjoyed watching your children grow from babies to lovely young people. A very special young mother and wife. May you now find peace, cherishing all the wonderful memories of your lives together.
God bless, Pat and Ken Sawicki

“ In this time of loss, I am reminded of some wise words that helped me cope with such loss and focus on what was truly important.

On the headstone, one sees the name, date of birth, and the date of passing. I want you to focus on the dash between those dates, remember all he was able to pack in between those times, and how much he gave you in that dash...you will see each other again, and joy will erase all the loss you feel now.

My prayers are with you and your family in this time, but most of all, remember to make the most out of your own dash...

God bless you.
