“ Uncle Mike had my wedding in his and Aunt Bobbies home, walked me through all the wedding then later the divorce. He helped me get my first car and taught me how to climb underneath and fix the transmission and starter to make it run. He took me and my kids to great America to celebrate my graduating nursing school. Years later he was there for my son too when he needed someone also. He was really proud of me last month talking to me while I had figured out how to drive my tractor and troubleshoot what was happening on my farm I bought this year and stayed on the phone through the whole orchard. I wish he had been able to come see it after harvest thismonth like we planned.

Most importantly, for over 35 years, Uncle Mike has been the one constant I could always count on to believe in me whether I was deserving of it or not. He made nksure to see and encourage potential he saw in me and made sure I saw there was more to me than life circumstances had brought. I would have grown up to be a very different person had it not been for him.

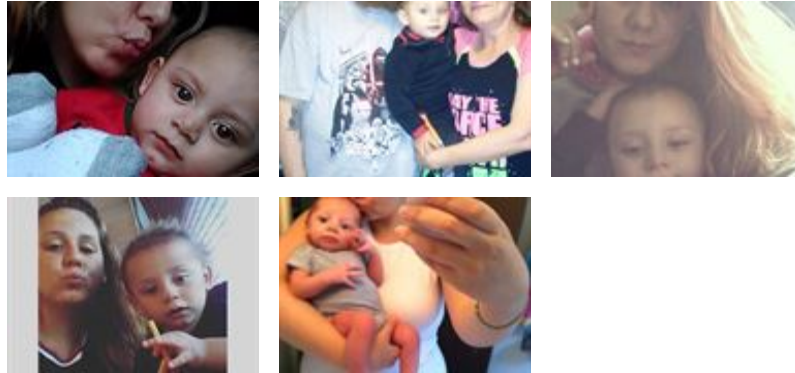

Charles, Doreen, Troy and Charlene and your family, my heart is with you. Your dad was a genuinely good man.
