

Nathan Alexander Manzanares

December 20, 2001 - September 20, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Nathan Alexander Manzanares, beloved son, brother, and friend, who left this world far too soon.

Born in San Francisco on December 20, 2001, Nathan brought light, laughter, and energy into the lives of all who knew him. From an early age, he was captivated by music — with Bon Jovi and Michael Jackson playing the soundtrack to his childhood. Whether he was singing his heart out or dancing with fearless joy, Nathan expressed himself fully and freely.

He grew up in San Francisco, attending school in the city that shaped his vibrant personality. He graduated high school there, surrounded by friends who became more like family. Nathan's friendships meant everything to him — he was loyal, funny, and always ready for an adventure. Whether it was shooting pool, heading to the gun range, gaming late into the night, or chatting online (often at full volume), he was always fully present, living life out loud.

Nathan had a free spirit and an infectious laugh. He smiled easily and often, and his energy had a way of filling a room. He was unapologetically himself — bold, funny, and full of life. One of the most iconic parts of Nathan's personality was his hair. He refused to cut it, and it became part of his identity. Braided, tied back, or styled high in a ponytail, his hair was a statement of who he was: proud, unique, and beautifully his own person.

Nathan touched many lives in his 23 years with his passion, kindness, and unforgettable spirit. He will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and all who were lucky enough to know him.

In remembering Nathan, we hold on to the joy he brought into our lives — the music, the laughter, and the love he gave so freely. May his memory continue to shine as brightly as he did.
