“ Nick was one of my very favorite students. He was in a select group that I often thought about with warmth and laughter, no matter how many years had passed. I was blessed to have known him and shared part of his life. My heart aches for his family.

“ Hady, my man. You always, as your sister wrote, made friends around you feel loved and important. You had an incredible ability to bring people together no matter what group they belonged to. You were a one of a kind guy, who never let others' opinions stop you.

You could be the life of the party, and I'm gonna miss your terrible jokes. I remember all the late nights playing video games and doing things your Mom (and my Mom) wouldn't approve of, but you were always up for anything, and I loved that about you. I'll cherish those memories.

I know you're up there somewhere, probably making the angels laugh with your corny humor. Keep it up, Hady. Although you may no longer be physically with us, your spirit lives on in the hearts of those who loved you.

Rachelle, Emma, Grace and I will pray for your family. God is with them, know that. Rest in peace my dear friend. Go Chiefs, how about them Raiders & Skol.

*God bless,
Matthew Garcia*

“ I’m so sorry for your tragic loss. I had the pleasure of interviewing Nick for his job at Cap One. I was immediately impressed with his confidence, knowledge and just overall great personality. After a few months we knew we made the right decision. Nick was a great leader and very influential on our national meetings, never shy about speaking up. He will be missed terribly. I will continue to pray for comfort for your family
