“ We are saddened over losing the long-standing beacon of light that Patsy was. Patsy lived her life fully and will always remain an example to me of how I would like to live my life until the very end. Patsy lived her life with an unwavering demeanor of elegance, grace, and spunk. Patsy, you will be missed and your memory and soul will stay alive forever through the beautiful family and community you have created.

“ My God! What can't you say about Patsy Vogepohl. Growing up in " Banisha " it was the vogelpohls, the Von Tellrops, the McInernys, and the Mac Bains. All good catholic families with 8 children. When the Vogepohls moved back from " South Pas " the were across the street from on West J Street. Patsy was a saint, a mentor, and a delight for all who knew her! Jim Von Tellrop

“ I will always have fond memories of going to "grandma Patsy's house" swimming with my best friend Megan growing up.....or seeing her at the 11 oclock mass at St Dominic's She would see me and wink as i was leaving down the aisle with my family after mass or during communion. That always made me laugh. She was such a cool lady, a great dresser and loved by all! I never saw her upset or in a bad mood. I especially loved seeing her and Aunt Joan with a glass of wine in their hands at one of the parties Megan and I would throw. She will be missed.

Love and condolences to her kids and myriad of grand kids and great grand kids.
