

Ray K. "Reibo" Tanihara

April 25, 1928 - November 10, 2015

Ray K. "Reibo" Tanihara, 87, of Vallejo passed on November 10, 2015 in a local hospital following a brief illness. He was born in Florin, CA and spent most of his life as a resident of Sacramento. He called Vallejo his home for the past 6 years, moving to be closer to his granddaughter. He worked as a retail clerk and produce manager for more than 40 years, most of those at Bel-Air Markets in Sacramento.

Ray was a long time member of the Buddhist Church of Florin. In his younger days Ray was an avid golfer and more recently could be found on a Saturday morning cheering on his granddaughter's swim team, The Benicia Stingrays.

Ray is survived by his wife of 55 years May; daughters Lisa (Doug) Scott and Dianne Tanihara and his granddaughter Jessica Scott.

In lieu of flowers, make any remembrance to the Buddhist Church of Florin, P.O. Box 292006, Sacramento, CA 95829 or a charity of your choosing.

Services will be private.

“ I worked with Diane at Toplis & Harding adjusting. Diane was so proud of her Dad. She had a plan to market her Dad's Jerky. "It is just the greatest" I am so sorry to learn I won't get a chance to taste the Greatest Jerky. My love to you Diane.

“ May, Lisa and Dianne . Ray was a good friend of mine that I will never forget . We were in the hospital together at Kaiser in Sacramento . Just the short time we were together we became good friends . I remember we had some great talks about our families . Ray was a family man and his family meant everything to him . He will surely be missed . I send my condolences to the family .. Bless you all .. John Baxter ...
