“ together but the Rep Awards trip to Vienna/Prague including Rick and Mo was an EPIC good time we continued to talk about for years. He thought me a few things, the veteran that he was, A fellow connoisseur of good Thai food we remained friends over the years and would try and connect for a bite to eat at Trade Shows. I'm so glad we got connected during his final few months (thank you Mo). He seemed to be at peace and even joked about wrapping up his time on earth. Rest eternal Rick ! I WILL see you on the other side.

You are a hero, Mo, for jumping in and caring for him. I know how hard that must have been.

*Grace&Peace in the Lord to you both,
Kevin Madden*

“ Over the decades I knew Rick, I learned that if you mentioned needing help of any kind, before you could finish describing your need, Rick would already be offering his assistance. Rick was a great help to me, and my mother, Sheila, on more than one occasion.

The world has truly lost one of the good guys, and is a lesser place because of that. I am saddened, but I am gladdened by knowing that I am a better man because of his friendship.

“ Rick has been one of the most favorite people I have associated with. He always looked on the bright side and encouraged me in any way he could. I remember fondly, sharing a room with him at a trade show, years ago and enjoying deep and thoughtful conversations. His religious and spiritual insight was incredible. He will be missed, but through my faith, I look forward to seeing him once again.

I was saddened to hear of Rick's death. Although I hadn't seen Rick in many years, FB provided years of contact through posts of our individual activities. I pray for comfort for Monique and the family as they cherish his legacy and memories. RIP Brother Rick.

Rick is one of my favorite reps to work with. He is really fun to travel with and he is an excellent salesman. He was also a mentor to me and I loved our many conversations and strategy sessions. I have many stories with Rick that are very dear to me. Rick is a great man and he will be sincerely missed. R.I.P. my dear friend.
