

Robert Duane Steiner

February 16, 1939 - October 26, 2024

Robert Duane Steiner “Buddah” passed away peacefully Saturday morning, October 26th. He is survived by the love of his life, wife Debra Steiner and cousin, Les Keebler resident of Billings and Red Lodge Montana.

Bob was born to ranchers in Fromberg, Montana. His dad was in the Army, and he attended elementary schools in Illinois, Oregon, Washington, Lafayette, Indiana and Osaka, Japan 1952.

He graduated from Puyallup High School (near Seattle) and Chico State (Harvard of the West as he Fondly would say.) He taught drivers education and coached football and golf at Woodside and Sequioa High Schools.

After teaching he owned and operated a Togo’s Eatery Franchise on Sonoma Boulevard in Vallejo. He purchased a second store in Fairfield on Gateway Boulevard. After selling Togo’s he operated a deli in Cordelia.

Bob joined Green Valley Country Club in 1978 and was an avid golfer for Many years. Sports were a big part of his life ~ rooting for the 49ers, Warriors and Being capo for a fun Bocce team.

Private celebrations of his life will be in the spring.
