

Roberta "Robin" Maas

March 9, 1954 - March 31, 2025

Robin Maas passed away peacefully Monday morning. She was born in Oakland and traveled for years working as a professional dancer and performer, before settling in Benicia in 1984. She also worked as a cosmetologist for more than 40 years.

When Robin was home, she loved to cook and watch cooking shows. She taught dance for many years in Benicia. She was a fan of all the Bay Area sports teams but NASCAR auto racing was her favorite.

She is survived by Gary, her husband of 40 years; daughters Emily (Derek) Perez and Sarah (Chris Munich) Maas; sister Elizabeth Martin; cousins Roberta (Michael) Jester and Gary (Judy) Tinder; her grandchildren Ronan Smith & Mina Perez; and her cat Bella.

Services and burial will be private.

“ Rest in peace, Robin. ❤️ I am so sad to hear of her passing. Robin lived a few doors down from my family. We shared the same birthday 🎂 . I remember our picnic lunches on our porch and sitting on the swing in the backyard. This photo is a gem and I cherish it and our childhood friendship. Peace be with you
