

Roger Oliver Appel

June 21, 1953 - February 9, 2019

Roger O. Appel, 65, of Suisun passed away Saturday, February 9th at his home in Suisun. He was born in Vallejo and lived his entire life in either Benicia or Suisun. He worked in the automobile parts business for almost 35 years beginning at Benicia Import Auto Service and later for Toyota Logistics in Fremont.

Roger loved going out to dinner, watching movies, going to the Farmers Market, working on cars and traveling, especially to Disneyland. He will be remembered as a perfectionist in all facets of his life.

Roger is survived by his wife Janee; daughter Danielle Marie Appel; sister Ilene Gail Petty; his nephews Mike McGanty and Shawn Petty; his niece Angela McGanty as well as his cat Midnight.

Funeral services will be held 11:00 a.m., Friday, February 22nd at Passalacqua Funeral Chapel. Burial will follow in Benicia Cemetery. Visitation will be at the mortuary Thursday from 4:00-8:00 p.m.

“ *Missing my brother Roger Appel this evening.
I remember when we went to the world fair in Canada
Had such a good time together. Roger loved to swim
He loved movies and concerts we went together.
We grew up in a camping family fishing and boating
We were a close family. Very close to our parents .
I loved my Bro very much . Rog died the same day my Mother died .
February 9 2019 He's buried next to my mom. Hugh family plot in Benicia cemetery
My Dad next to Mom my Grandmother up their . Aunt & uncle .
Going up soon to put flowers on their graves . Gail Appel . I want to thank everyone who came to my brother's funeral. All the support they gave to help us get threw a very hard time . Sincerely
Gail Appel*

“ Roger is my cousin. He and I spent lots of quality time together rummaging through second hand stores in Benicia and exploring down on the bay. We both loved tinkering with gadgets. Roger was always fun to be with. He will be missed. Glen Pitts
